IMTS Is About Technology

IMTS is designed to introduce you to the technology and trends that will help you cut costs and produce more efficiently. It's where you can not only solve existing challenges, but set yourself up for future growth.

Over 1.2 million square feet of exhibit space can be a lot to tackle, so it's important to plan. Get the most out of what exhibitors offer by segmenting what you need to see, what you want to see, and always leaving a little room for discovery. IMTS Pavilions help break down exhibitor technology by specific interests and processes.
